

CROSSING MYANMAR

We choose to stay in hotel because some other travellers told us it was a good idea to sleep well after a lot of driving everyday. And if you don't go to the hotel you'll have to sleep in the parking of the hotel and it's not always good place (maybe not flat, or near the road...)

We contacted 4 different agencies.

The program is nearly the same.

The price depend if you are alone or not. But it's better to find other travellers by yourself...
